

December 29 - Memorial of Saint Thomas Becket, Bishop, Martyr: Born in London, England, about 1118, Thomas was ordained a deacon in 1154 and appointed Archbishop of Canterbury in 1162 by King Henry II. However, Thomas and the king did not agree on matters regarding the Church, forcing Thomas into exile in France. Within weeks of his return, he and the king clashed again. In a fit of rage the king wished aloud to be rid of this “low-born priest”, and four of the king’s men took this to be a command. As a result, Thomas was martyred in Canterbury Cathedral in 1170. Upon learning of the archbishop’s fate, the king was shocked and all Europe with him. In 1173, Pope Alexander III declared Thomas a saint.

JANUARY 1 -THE SOLEMNITY OF MARY, THE HOLY MOTHER OF GOD: This feast of Mary falls exactly one week after Christmas, at the end of the octave of Christmas. The solemnity is a celebration of Mary’s motherhood of Jesus and hence also a celebration of Mary as the Mother of God. Calling Mary “Mother of God” is the highest honour we can give Mary, and celebrating her divine maternity during the Christmas octave makes complete sense in that the celebration is connected closely to Christ’s birth. In his encyclical, Marialis Cultus, Pope Paul VI further noted the connection to New Year’s Day and Mary’s role as Queen of Peace. Thus it is fitting that January 1, the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God, is also observed as World Day of Peace. This day is a Holy Day of Obligation.

JANUARY 1 - WORLD DAY OF PEACE: The World Day of Peace was established in 1968 by Pope Paul VI who asked that “every year, this commemoration be repeated as a hope and as a promise, at the beginning of the calendar which measures and outlines the path of human life in time, that Peace with its just and beneficent equilibrium may dominate the development of events to come”. Today we celebrate the 59th World Day of Peace. This is a special day set aside to pray for peace in the world, for goodwill among nations, and for light and guidance for civil and world leaders. It is a time for each of us to reflect on our individual responsibility to work and pray for peace. As we celebrate the Solemnity of Mary, the Mother of God, it is also an appropriate time to ask Mary, Queen of Peace, to intercede on behalf of the world for world peace. The theme chosen by Pope Leo for this year’s World Day of Peace is “Peace be with you all: Towards an ‘unarmed and disarming’ peace”.

FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY AND JOSEPH

This feast, instituted in 1921, is observed on the first Sunday following Christmas, unless Christmas itself falls on a Sunday, in which case the Feast of the Holy Family is celebrated on December 30. Devotion to the Holy Family flourished during the Renaissance, and leading artists of the time – Michelangelo, Raphael, El Greco, Rembrandt, Rubens, to name a few – often portrayed the Holy Family in their work.
